

Faculty of Computing

End Semester Examination – 2020 Semester 1

Instructions:

- (1) Faculty of Computing final exams fall into one of three different exam types. The exam type relevant to a particular module is indicated in the time table.
 - a. Type 1 – Online exams where you have to enter all answers directly into the browser. These exams are normally conducted using a locked-down browser, unless otherwise specified.
 - b. Type 2 – Online exams where you have to upload some files. These files may be photographs of written work or computer generated files, as specified in the question paper. In addition, you may have to directly enter some answers as well.
 - c. Type 3 – Assignment type exams where you have to complete your work and upload the submission by the indicated deadline.
- (2) Each exam has a unique URL through which you have to login to do the exam. You can get the URLs of exams conducted on a particular day from <https://courseweb.sliit.lk/>.
- (3) In order to become familiar with the locked-down browser environment, follow the instructions given in <https://courseweb.sliit.lk/mod/forum/discuss.php?d=10250> well before your exam type.
- (4) If you need any clarification or help with your exam, please contact your lecturer as soon as possible.
